Message from CFO and Vice Chancellor

UCI's Public Safety Advisory Committee (PSAC) enters its fourth year of service by continuing its mission of proactively seek advice and counsel from a diverse group of community members regarding issues that impact the safety and quality of life of students, faculty, staff, and visitors of the UCI campus and Medical Center.

I am grateful to PSAC Chair, Professor Katie Tinto, for her passion and dedication in leading the group to accomplish forward progress in public safety. Each PSAC member also deserves recognition for their unwavering commitment, dedication, and partnership to the committee and the UCI community PSAC serves.

Public safety continues to be at the forefront of national conversations, and UCI has taken many critical steps towards improving safety and security on campus. Two major initiatives took place this year: an external review of the UCI Police Department overseen by PSAC and the systemwide UC Community Safety Plan.

The review of the UCI Police Department conducted by Mike Davis of MBD Innovation began in the fall of 2020 and was completed in early 2021. The review culminated in a report and recommendations to move forward in structural, cultural, and systemic change. The full report, Recommendations for the Transformation of Public Safety in the UCI Community, can be viewed at psac.uci.edu.

The UC Community Safety Plan is a systemwide effort to reimagine our approach to campus safety and security that received extensive input from UC students, faculty, staff, and alumni. PSAC Chair and Professor Katie Tinto served as UCI's representative in developing the plan, and implementation of four guidelines and corresponding 31 actions is currently underway. Visit the following website for more information: <https://www.ucop.edu/community-safety-plan/>.

PSAC continued working diligently to ensure their great work during the pandemic. Website enhancements increased transparency, and "I am PSAC" was added to showcase members' reasoning for service on the committee. Several outreach events constructively engaged the community on topics related to public safety, and input was provided to the UCI Police Department on improving processes such as implementing a tiered response to emergency calls.

I also extend my appreciation to Police Chief Liz Griffin and her team as we work together to continuously improve the ways UCIPD serves the community while upholding their commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusion.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to me or any member of PSAC should you have any concerns or ideas on how we can better serve the community.

Sincerely,

Ronald S. Cortez, JD, MA

Chief Financial Officer

Vice Chancellor, Division of Finance and Administration

Message from PSAC Chair

In the wake of the national protests calling for racial justice and an end to police violence in May 2020, on June 9, 2020, Vice Chancellors Douglas Haynes and Ronald Cortez and Chief Liz Griffin asked the Public Safety Advisory Committee (PSAC) to conduct an evaluation of the UCI Police Department. In the fall of 2020, PSAC led an honest, in-depth assessment of the UCI Police Department and its role and effectiveness in serving all segments of the university community. PSAC delivered its report in February 2021, recommending specific changes to policing on campus as well as a broader introspection about the goals and meaning of public safety in our community. Following this report, Chancellor Gillman appointed Vice Chancellor Doug Haynes to implement PSAC's recommendations for change, a university-wide effort that is currently underway. On a systemwide level at the University of California, the UC Community Safety Plan was announced in Summer 2021, a reflection of the many segments of our community now focused on the important day-to-day work in creating systemic change.

As PSAC states in our February 2021 report, Recommendations for the Transformation of Public Safety in the UCI Community, we are at a point in our history of policing on the UCI campus and nationwide where small tweaks are insufficient. PSAC is committed to structural, cultural, and systemic change. Such change requires broader, longer, and more difficult, introspective work. PSAC also recognizes that the scope of such systemic transformation requires that we move forward in smaller steps in order to accomplish this broader change.

PSAC invites all community members to be a part of our collective efforts. We invite you to view our work on www.pfac.uci.edu. If you have particular issues around policing and public safety at UCI that you would like to share with PSAC, please contact us at PSAC@uci.edu

Sincerely,

Katie Tino
PSAC Chair
Clinical Professor, School of Law

Background

The Public Safety Advisory Committee (PSAC) was established in February 2018, created thanks to recommendations put forward by then UCI Academic Senate Chair William Parker in June 2017. The Senate Cabinet endorsed recommendations from the report produced by the ad hoc UCIPD-UCI Community Relations Committee convened by the Academic Senate in Fall 2016.

Description and Charge

The Public Safety Advisory Committee proactively seeks the advice and counsel from a diverse group of community members regarding issues that impact the safety and quality of life of students, faculty, staff, and visitors of the UCI campus and Medical Center.

Public Safety Advisory Committee serves as a link between the campus community and the UCI Police Department. PSAC provides a forum to discuss and make recommendations on public policies, community outreach, and may participate on hiring panels for key UCI Police Department personnel. The advisory committee produces an annual report which summarizes its activities and includes key data of interest to the campus community, including the number and types of complaints the UCI Police Department receives.

PSAC Membership

The Public Safety Advisory Committee members represent the diversity of campus stakeholders, including students, faculty and staff of UCI. Members are appointed by the CFO and Vice Chancellor of the Division of Finance and Administration from nominations provided by representative groups. UCI Police Department Complaint Data

Formal complaints result in an investigation, and complainants will be notified of the disposition. The average time it takes to process and investigate a complaint is between three and six months; however, each case is unique. Additional information regarding complaints can be found on the UCI Police Department website: police.uci.edu/commendations-complaints.

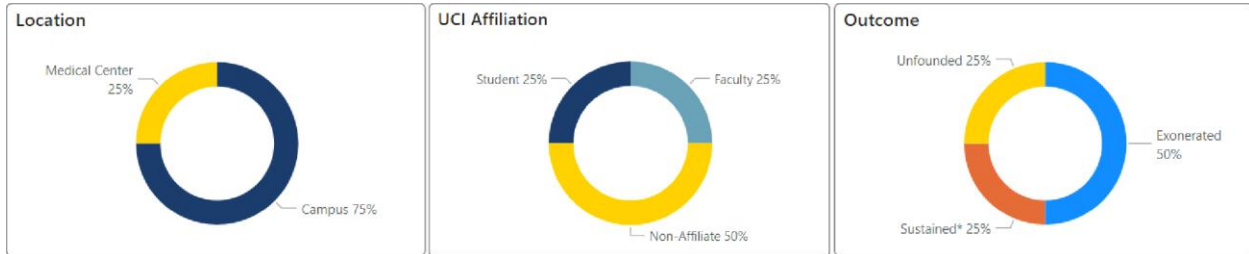

The possible findings are:

- Exonerated: When the investigation discloses that the alleged act occurred, but that the act was justified, lawful and/or proper.
- Not Sustained: When the investigation discloses that, there is insufficient evidence to sustain the complaint or fully exonerate the employee.
- Sustained: When the investigation discloses sufficient evidence to establish that the act occurred and that it constituted misconduct.
- No Finding: The complainant failed to provide additional information needed to complete the investigation.
- Complaint Withdrawn: The complainant affirmatively indicates the desire to withdraw their complaint.
- Mediation: By mutual agreement with all involved parties the case was mediated and the complaint withdrawn.
- Referred to Other Entity: The investigation determined that persons other than UC Irvine Police employees were involved or the investigation falls within the jurisdiction of the UCI Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversion (OEOD).
